

2021 Showmen's Guild Yatala Think Tank Itinerary

Tuesday 12th January 2021

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER YOUR ATTENDANCE AND ORDER YOUR TICKETS

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 11.30am – 12.30pm | Registration – Tickets must be presented at the gate to gain entry. |
| 12.30pm – 12:40pm | Introduction – Mr Angus Lane OAM |
| 12:40pm - 1.00pm | President's Welcome
George Pink - Showmen's Guild
Tim Capp – Gresford Show - ASC of NSW
Estelle Drynan – Esk Show - QLD AG Shows |
| 1.00pm – 1.10 pm | Government representative – TBC |
| 1.10pm – 1.30pm | Logistics of Showground Access: Entry, Gates Requirements, QR, Online Ticketing, Other options, Cash, Paperwork, Contact Storage |
| 1.30pm – 3.00pm | Planning Your Show: 6 key sections for your Covid Health Plan
Breaking Down Your Show: 'White board approach' - areas, people flow, highlighting blockages and analysing risks. Traffic Management: Vehicles, People, Livestock |
| 3.00 – 3.30pm | Afternoon Tea. Time with entertainers is not encouraged to ensure program runs efficiently |
| 3.30pm – 4.15pm | The Big Decisions: Financial efficiencies, more for less, are there sacrifices to remain viable? |
| 4.15pm – 4.30pm | Volunteer Management: Managing the increased need for volunteers, shows working together |
| 4.30 pm – 5.00pm | Putting it together: What your show will look like in our post Covid world |
| 5.00pm – 6.15pm | Entertainment – including a walk-through of patron management with the Showmen's Guild |
| 6:15pm – 7.00pm | Dinner provided by The Showmen's Guild |
| 7.00pm – 8:00pm | Evening Entertainment Display - TBC |

NOTE: Entry only available via online registration and limited to only 2 members per Show Society. We may be able to accept more numbers as the Covid restrictions are revised and will advise shows accordingly.
Online registration is mandatory for our Covid-Safe Event management and to simulate how your show could implement online ticketing/registration and data collection. More information will be available in due course.
There will be no lunch provided. Program is subject to change.